Not Avail

The two ferries which were opened by the defunct Taluk Board, Kollegal, and subsequently handed over to the District Board, Coimbatore, are out of use now. Mudigundam ferry was in use since 1932 when a bridge was constructed across the Hobhalla River. Sargur ferry was not in use, as persons who were using this ferry, cross the river by Dasanapuram Ferry. The above two ferries may, therefore, be closed.

2. No information is available in any office regarding the iginal notification declaring the above two ferries open under ections 8 & 10 of the Public Ferries Act, 1890.

3. Sketches of the localities where ferries ~~are~~ to be closed and the outes now used by the people and the draft notification called for re enclosed.

Draft Notification.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 8 & 10 of the anals and Public Ferries Act, 1890 (Madras Act II of 1890), the overnment of Madras are hereby pleased to cancel with effect from the ate of publication of this notification, the Public Works and Labour epartment Notifications,

(1) Declaring the ferries at Mudigundam and Sargur in the Kollegal aluk of Coimbatore district to be subject to the provisiins of the said Act; and

(2) fixing the tolls leviable upon passengers, animals, vehicles and oods conveyed across such ferry.
